

BREDON MANOR

LUXURY WEDDING VENUE

Welcome to Bredon Manor

An early 18th century Georgian manor house set on the edge of the pretty village of Bredon, in Gloucestershire. Surrounded by beautifully manicured gardens, jaw-dropping views of the River Avon and the National Trust's 14th century Tithe Barn, Bredon Manor is a truly magnificent place.

Bredon Manor is an exclusive use venue and a much-loved family home, we hope you and your guests feel at home here too.

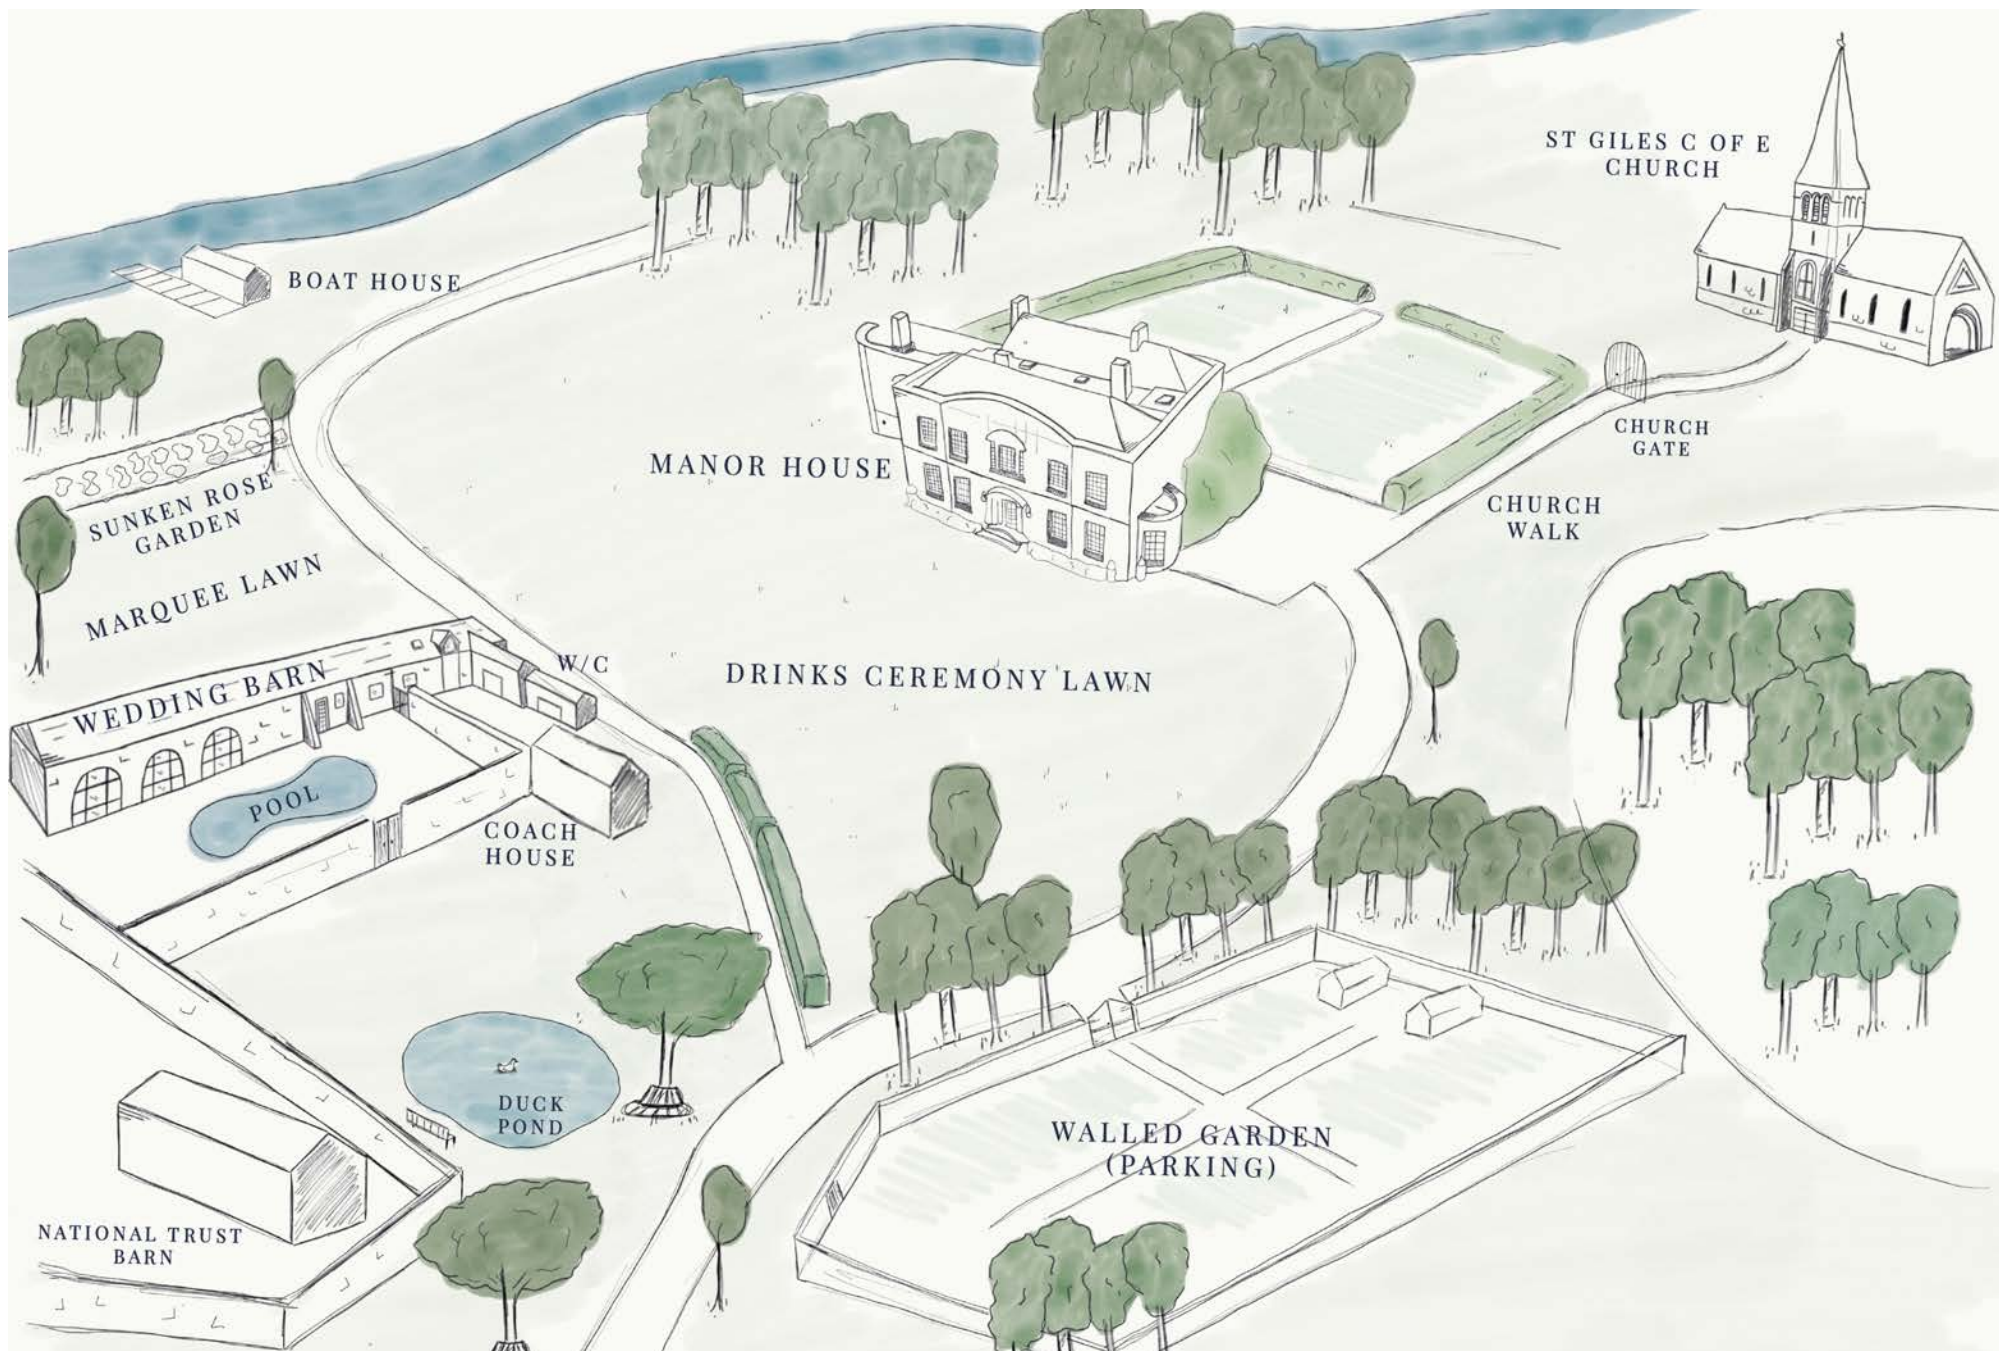

Celebrate in style

An elegant country house retreat surrounded by idyllic Gloucestershire countryside; Bredon Manor is a truly romantic setting for your special day. Our weddings are an intimate affair where you are in control. We only host a small number of weddings each year so you can feel at peace knowing that your day will be special.

Whether you want to celebrate in a marquee on the front lawn, or in our beautiful pool side barn, we promise a memorable and stylish day.

To have and to hold

You can choose to get married at the beautiful local church, St Giles, which is right next door to Bredon Manor. Walk from the church through a private gate into the beautiful garden of Bredon Manor to your reception. Alternatively, you can have a celebrant perform a blessing within the grounds, either outside or in our barn.

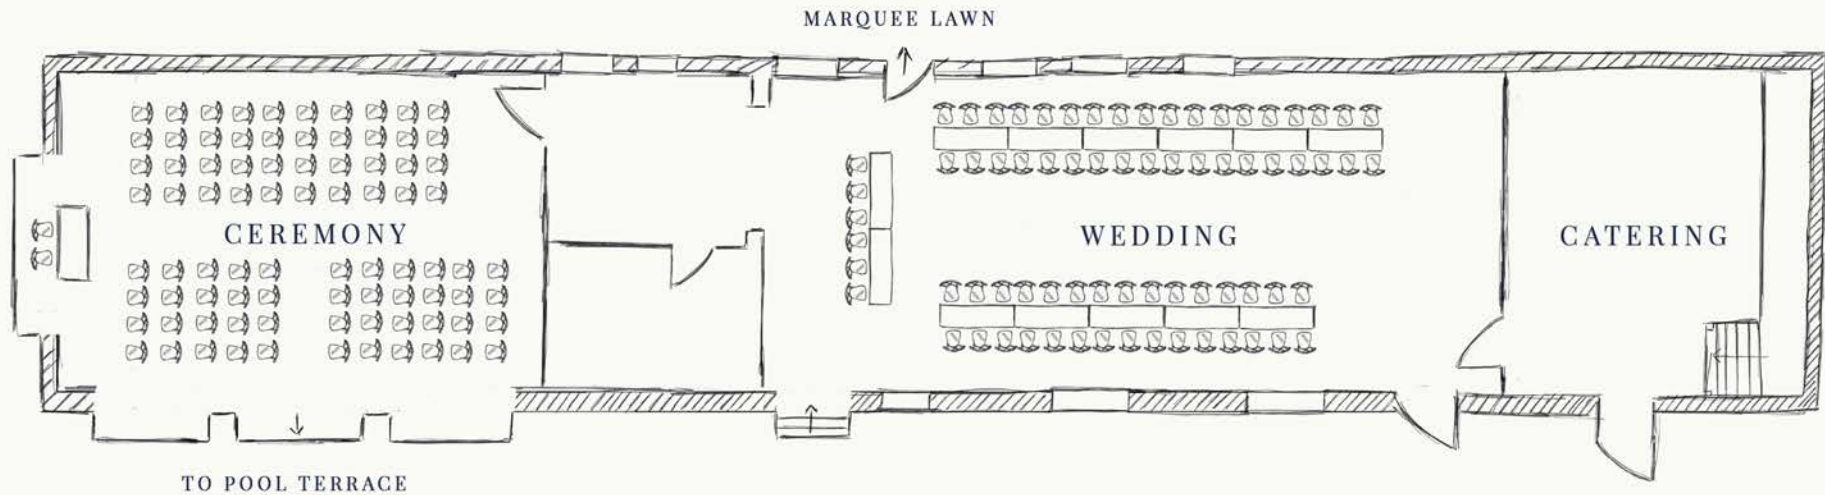

Raise your glass

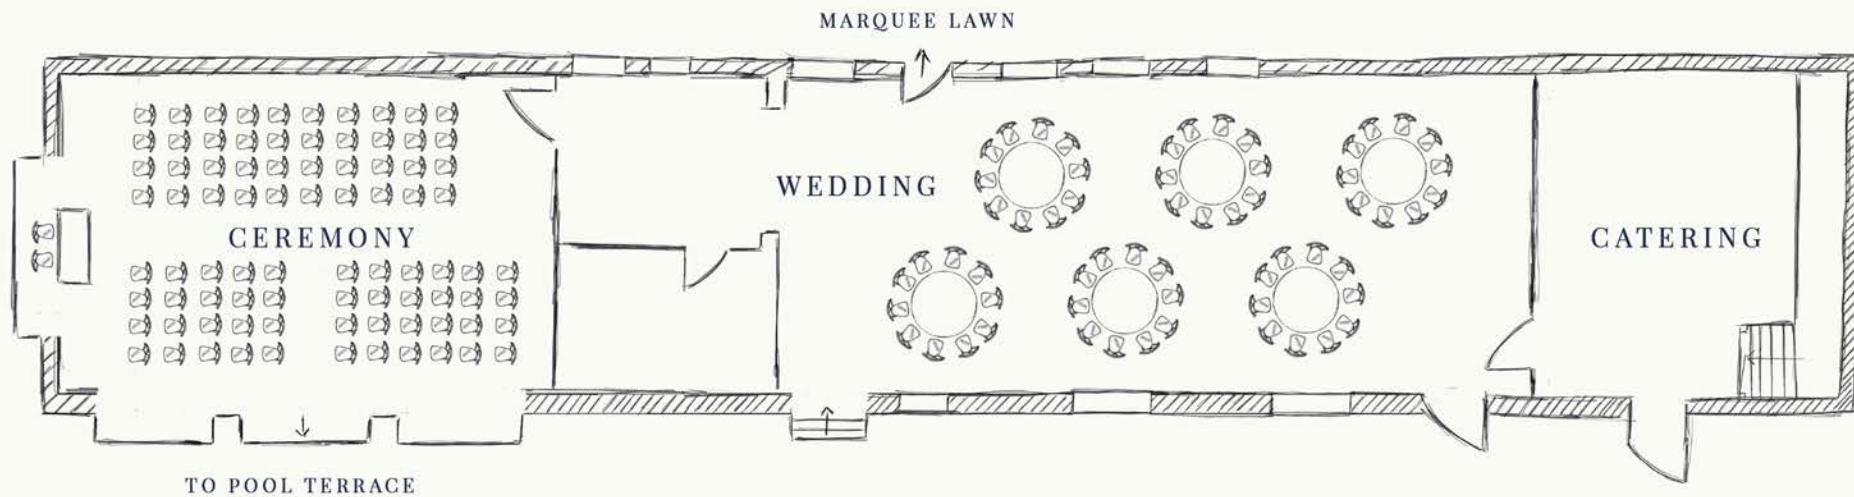

Whether it be canapés on the lawn, feasting in the barn, street food or traditional sit-down meal, our caterers will work with you to create a memorable feast for you and your guests

We do not charge a corkage, so you are welcome to bring whatever you want to toast the happy couple! Alternatively, we can arrange a cocktail bar or other forms of watering holes.
